Canadian Consumer Database from AWI is sourced from proprietary sources and telephone directories that specifically carry an opt-out within the phone books themselves. These directory-sources literally contain content dedicated to consumer notification and opt-out.

This use statement with negative option "opt-out" is written within each source publication in order to insure Canadian personal information is in compliance. With our close affiliation with the major phone carriers we are able to offer the freshest, most clean Canadian consumer addresses with the most updated phone connection.

AWI brings you the Canadian Consumer Database chock-full of super prospects for fundraising, catalogs, retail, insurance, financial, and publications.
